Known for being a place for swimming, surfing, skin diving, fishing, and picnicking, the campground, which is led by the stairway from the beach, is very popular during the summer.This beach is located immediately south of Carlsbad State Beach. Read more about South Carlsbad State Beach at Wikipedia South Carlsbad State Beach Campground is a very large campground located on the beach in the north San Diego County area, with camping on bluffs overlooking the ocean. The campground is located along a wide expanse of beach that is known for surfing, swimming, and scuba diving. Many of the campsites are along the bluff, and have ocean views, albeit through a chain-link fence, while the other campsites back against are further back from the edge of the bluffs. There are 212 campsites at South Carlsbad State Beach Campground for tents and RVs up to 25 feet long. Each of the campsites includes a picnic table, fire ring, access to bathrooms, and coin operated showers. A small convenience store is available onsite during the summertime. Leashed dogs are allowed within the campground, but not on the beach. Surf & Turf RV Park is to the south of Carlsbad. It is easily accessed off Interstate 5, and a local horse racing arena is within walking distance. The beach is nearby, and the San Diego County Fair at the Del Mar Fairgrounds are right down the street.Why You'll Love Surf & Turf RV Park Surf & Turf RV Park is in a prime location. Full hookups aren't available, but a sewer truck makes its rounds through the park three times per week. Amenities like Whole Foods and Denny's are within walking distance, and this RV park charges relatively low rates. What People Are Saying About Surf & Turf RV Park "My husband, daughter, and I have been staying at the park for the past two months, and we think it's great! It doesn't have all the amenities (why I only gave it 4 stars), but who needs a pool when you've got the beach down the street! The manager, Cynthia is wonderful. She's very friendly and willing to help whenever she can. We have water and electric hookups, which are great. There is no hookup for sewer, but you don't have to leave to dump. There is a sewer pumping service that comes three times a week. We'd recommend the park to anyone!" -Shannon, Yelp Review "Manager is friendly and helpful. Doesn't get in your business at all. Only costs $550 a month for a 33-foot RV, which is great. Next to the Del Mar racetrack." - Sandy, Google Review South Carlsbad State Beach extends from Palomar Airport Road to La Costa Ave. Unlike Carlsbad State Beach to the north, this beach has few amenities, except for the campgrounds, and is rather remote. Popular activities include swimming, surfing, skin diving, fishing and picnicking, and sunbathing. Good quality sand makes this beach ideal for walking and jogging. Campground South Carlsbad State Beach Campground, the large bluff-top campground, is very popular, especially in summer. Stairs lead from the campground to the beach. This section of beach is located along rugged cliffs, making it rather remote. There are some safe access points to the beach. You can find these where cars are parked on the small turnouts along the highway. This section of South Carlsbad Beach includes Terramar Beach and North Ponto Beach. South of Campground to La Costa Ave South of the campground, the cliffs disappear, and the beach opens up to Coast Hwy 101. This section of beach is unusually wide and sandy. The surrounding area is undeveloped, making this one of the nicest beaches in the county. During Summer, this beach is a popular spot for family and kids. The closes restrooms, however, are at South Ponto Beach parking lot and the campgrounds. The Batiquitos Lagoon is located on the opposite side of the highway. A jetty and water inlet separates the beach just south of the campground from South Ponto Beach, further south. South Ponto Beach has the best conditions for surfing. Surfing contests are held at Ponto from time to time. To the north is Carlsbad State Beach, the city's other major beach. Amenities and Other Details None (Nearest restrooms are at campground and South Ponto Beach parking lot). Regulations No alcohol, glass or dogs allowed South Carlsbad State Beach Campground sits on a cliff overlooking South Carlsbad State Beach. There's no day-use facilities, and it's more isolated than Tamarack State Beach. Parking On the beach south of the campgrounds, parking is available in spaces along Coast Hwy 101 directly in front of the beach. Hours 6 am to 10 pm. Disabled Access Stairs from campground to the South Carlsbad State Beach are now accessible. A route from the Ponto Picnic Area to the beach is also accessible. Parking in the day use area is accessible. A beach wheelchair is available. Call (760) 753-5091 for information. In all, South Carlsbad State Beach has a secluded section, hidden below cliffs with few access points, while the section south of the campground is a wide, open sandy beach, in an undeveloped area. Reviewed 4/3/2019 The good: location, views, bathrooms/showers, beach access, clean beach. The Bad: Over priced, VERY difficult to get a site (esp on the beach side), traffic and train noise, allot of theft (lock up your stuff), on the weekends there is allot of partying going on. Just sayin', now they charge for the dump station but that's CA taxation... more Access Location Cleanliness Site Quality Noise Verizon 4G/LTE Coolparrot would stay here againThis review is the opinion of a Campendium member and not of Campendium.com Situated on the scenic California shore, South Carlsbad State Beach is the perfect getaway for beach bums and nature enthusiasts alike. Towering bluffs overlook miles of pristine beach and crashing ocean waves. Located three miles south of Carlsbad, California, and 50 miles north of San Diego, the park is a must-see stop on your next West Coast road trip.It doesn't matter if it's your first time or your hundredth time, this trip to the beach has something for everyone. Enjoy scuba diving, snorkeling, and surfing in the Pacific waters, or stay landside with fishing, hiking, biking, and picnicking. In the winter months, watch with wonder at the whales and dolphins that come to visit.Once you park your camper at the bluff-top campsite, take the easy stroll down the connecting staircase to the beach. Explore tidal pools to catch a glimpse of ocean life. Hunt for geocaches at the waterside. Return to your campsite to enjoy nights by the fire with the comforts of home.With a temperate climate, a variety of activities, and ample amenities, South Carlsbad State Beach is the perfect RV destination at any time of year. Peak season is March through November.
