When renewing a passport for a child under 18 years old, Annexure D is one of the mandatory documents that requires notarization and must be submitted along with other required documents. Read about other documents that require notary for a child's Indian passport renewal here. Are Handwritten Annexure Accepted? According to VFS instructions, it's recommended to type out the information rather than sending handwritten documents. However, I've personally seen hundreds of Annexures filled out by hand with pen, and they were accepted. What specific details are needed to fill in? Child's full name, followed by the date of birth in Indian format: DD/MM/YYYY (exactly as appears passport). If both parents are available to sign, mention both parents' full names. If only one parent is signing, please specify the signing parent's name. Additionally, you must submit Annexure C [Only required for Cases where One parent has not given Consent]. Common reasons for one parent's inability to sign may include travel abroad, separation, or divorce. Fill out the parent's full name as stated in the child's passport (unless there's a need for correction, which requires two IDs for the new spelling). Next, provide passport number, contact number, email ID the current USA address including the zip code (ensure it matches the one you're providing proof for). Next, enter your ARN (Acknowledgement Reference Number) which will be generated after you submit the government form here. How to fill-out Annexure D- Sample- VFS Global Once you have completed this form, it needs to be notarized. You should wait to be in front of a notary to have your signature witnessed, indicating the place and time of signing this annexure D. Additionally, provide one of the following for each parent signing, or just one parent if applicable: passport number, Aadhaar number, or voter ID card number.
